Respondents.

DOCKETED BY

Plaintiff submits its Response to Respondent's Request for Continuance ("Request").
 Respondent's Request should be denied.

The Securities Division filed a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing on November 5, 2013. A pre-hearing conference was held on December 10, 2013, setting the hearing date for April 14, 2014. A mutual exchange of exhibits and witness list was scheduled for February 28, 2014. Respondents failed to provide exhibits and witness list as ordered. On March 20, 2014, Respondents requested a six month continuance to obtain legal counsel. After oral arguments, the hearing was continued to July 14, 2014. Respondents failed to obtain counsel. Respondents now are requesting a year's continuance "to develop a legal defense and strategy."

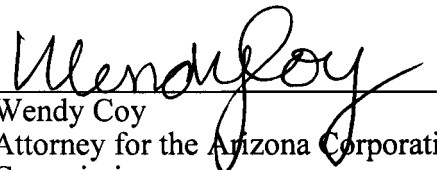

Pursuant to A.A.C. R14-3-109(Q), a hearing may be continued "on a showing of good cause." Respondents fail to establish a good cause basis to continue the scheduled hearing. Respondents were served with the Notice of Opportunity in November of 2013. Respondents have had ample time to prepare for a hearing on this matter. The Securities Division has provided copies

1 of all exhibits and the list of witnesses that will be used at hearing. Almost all of the Securities
2 Division's exhibits are documents that originated with the Respondents. There are no exhibits that
3 should be a surprise to the Respondents or that warrant a one year continuance.

4 This is the second request for continuance filed by the Respondents. Respondents again file
5 a request for continuance less than 30 days from the scheduled hearing and after receiving the 6 Securities Division's exhibits and witness list. Respondents request for continuance should be 7 denied.

8 Dated this 24th day of June, 2014.
